

NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

To all persons whose personal information may have been accessed during an April 2023 cybersecurity incident that impacted Physicians to Women, Inc. and Mid-Atlantic Women's Care, PLC, a proposed class action Settlement may affect your rights.

A federal Court has authorized this Notice.

- A Settlement has been reached with Physicians to Women, Inc. ("PTW") and Mid-Atlantic Women's Care, PLC ("MAWC") (collectively, "Defendants") in a class action lawsuit about a cybersecurity incident that occurred on or around April 4, 2023 ("Security Incident").
- The lawsuit is captioned Johnson et al. v. Physicians to Women, Inc. and Mid-Atlantic Women's Care, PLC, 7:24-cv-00144-MFU-CKM (United States District Court for the Western District of Virginia). Defendants deny the allegations and all liability or wrongdoing with respect to any and all facts and claims alleged in the lawsuit but has agreed to a settlement to avoid the costs and risks associated with continuing this case.

What are the Settlement Benefits? Settlement Class Members who timely submit a valid Claim Form may receive the following benefits from a $918,510 Settlement Fund:

- Credit Monitoring Services— two (2) years of one bureau credit monitoring, medical monitoring, and identity protection services.
- Out-of-Pocket Loss Reimbursement – Up to $10,000 per claimant, subject to a pro rata (proportional) adjustment depending on the number of Approved Claims filed.
- Cash Payment- a pro rata portion of the Net Settlement Fund (after payments for Credit Monitoring Services, Out-of-Pocket Losses, Settlement Administration Notice, Costs and Expenses, attorneys' fees and costs, and Service Award Payment).
